WEDDING POLICIES

We warmly welcome you to plan your wedding with us at Ralph Connor Memorial United Church where we have been welcoming the Canmore community to our ministry since 1890.

Many couples choose to be married in our historic church. Our sanctuary seats 90 people and is known for its acoustics and historic charm.

Wedding guidelines: We request that couples contact us well in advance of their wedding date to ensure that the date they request is available.

We strongly advise couples to seek out and attend a marriage preparation course in the community where they reside.

Where blended families or remarriage is involved, it might be advisable to pursue further premarital counselling, or to consult with our minister.

Please contact us to make an appointment. Insofar as the wedding is taking place in a congregation of the United Church of Canada, we would anticipate that one or both of those seeking marriage would be baptized into the Christian faith, and be comfortable with a United Church minister and a Christian wedding service.

We do our best to accommodate all marriage requests but there are occasions when it is difficult. Regarding same-sex weddings: we rejoice that equal marriage exists in Canada and are very happy to conduct them.

Since a United Church service is being requested, the incumbent United Church minister will normally be conducting the service. If the minister is away, attempts will be made to find a suitable replacement.

Requests for other ministers to preside at your wedding will be forwarded through our office to our minister.

WEDDING FEES

The cost to be married in our church is $1000. This includes our minister, musician and a wedding host.

Should you choose to have someone else officiate or perform at your wedding those costs must be covered above and beyond this fee.

If you are choosing to have an offsite wedding the cost for the minister to conduct the ceremony is $350.

There is an option to hold the church for use in the case of inclement weather with an additional non-refundable deposit of $200, and pay $800 on the day of the wedding if used, please advise the office if you would like to hold the church.

A $200 non-refundable deposit is required to confirm booking your wedding with the outstanding amount to be paid on or before your rehearsal date (with the exception of the $800 inclement weather fee which can be paid day of if required).

Please make cheques payable to RCMUC.

Please note that no booking is considered confirmed until the deposit is received. Fees can be paid to the Church Office which is open Tuesday – Friday 9-12 or sent in the mail to the church.

Overseas Enquiries – Please contact RCMUC for payment details Please note : Charges quoted are subject to change.
